THE SOCIETY OF ARTS.

THE SOCIETY OF ARTS was founded in 1754, and incorporated by Royal Charter in 1847, for "The Encouragement of the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of the Country, by bestowing rewards for such productions, inventions, or improvements as tend to the employment of the poor, to the increase of trade, and to the riches and honour of the kingdom; and for meritorious works in the various departments of the Fine Arts; for Discoveries, Inventions, and Improvements in Agriculture, Chemistry, Mechanics, Manufactures, and other useful Arts; for the application of such natural and artificial products, whether of Home, Colonial, or Foreign growth and manufacture, as may appear likely to afford fresh objects of industry, and to increase the trade of the realm by extending the sphere of British commerce; and generally to assist in the advancement, development, and practical application of every department of science in connection with the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of this country."

The following may serve to indicate the varied nature of the Society's operations. So early as the middle of the last century, its efforts were directed to improving Agricultural implements; raising, planting, and preserving timber; improving the culture of most kinds of corn and grass seeds, and the introduction of new root crops; also the reclamation of large tracts of land from the sea, thus extending the means of producing food for the people. In applied Chemistry and Metallurgy it collected much information relative to improvements in dyeing and tanning, the make of crucibles and retorts, the discovery of cobalt, zaffre, and smalt, and the manufacture of iron, copper, and tin; in Manufactures it has given to the world many improvements, such as the loom for weaving fishing-nets, spinning-machines, the make of Persian carpets, druggets, cambric, lace, and various kinds of paper. It erected the first saw-mill used in this country, and has introduced many improvements in ship-building, the diving-bell, floating-lights, the construction of cranes and jacks, and manufacturing machines and tools in general.

In our Colonies the Society has been instrumental in establishing Botanic Gardens, thereby aiding the importation and production of the spices, fruits, and gums of Foreign Countries, and their more general introduction into Commerce. It has also been the means of introducing many new substances, such as gutta-percha, cocoa-nut oil, &c., thereby creating new sources of trade.

Among the important but less known works of the Society may be mentioned the establishment of a regular supply of Fish to the London market; upon this work the Society expended many thousands of pounds.

In the Fine Arts the Society not merely encouraged the study of Art at a period prior to the existence of the Royal Academy and Government Schools, but, by allowing artists to make collections of their works, and to exhibit them in the Society's Rooms, in 1760, it thereby established permanent Exhibitions of Art in this country, out of which grew the present Royal Academy. Among the names of those rewarded by the Society in their youth, will be found Flaxman, Bacon, Nollekens, Uwins, Landseer, Mulready, Ross, Eastlake, Millais, and other leading Artists.

Since its incorporation by Royal Charter in 1847, by holding smaller Industrial Exhibitions, the Society prepared the way for the first Great International Exhibition, held in 1851, which was originated by the Society under the presidency of his Royal Highness the Prince Consort. The Society at first entered into an agreement with contractors to carry out the undertaking, but subsequently applied to Her Majesty to issue a Royal Commission, a petition which was graciously acceded to. The more recent action of the Society, in reference to the International Exhibition of 1862, is well known. It raised a Guarantee Fund of £450,000, to meet the expenses of the undertaking, and nominated the Commissioners, who were afterwards appointed by Her Majesty.

The Artistic Copyright Act of 1862 was prepared and carried through Parliament by a committee of the Society; and the amendment of the Laws bearing upon Industry and Commerce, especially the Patent Laws, the improvement of the Dwellings of the Labouring Classes, and the education of the workman, have at various times occupied its attention; but Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce—the objects which it was established to promote—afford so wide a field of investigation, that the nature of the Society's action, and its method of carrying out the objects of its founders, can only be fully known to those who take a continued interest in the Society itself.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.—The Session commences in November and ends in June. At the Wednesday Evening Meetings during the Session, papers on subjects relating to inventions, improvements, discoveries, and other matters connected with the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of the Country are read and discussed, full reports of them being given in the Weekly Journal published by the Society.

The following are the dates of the Meetings for the Session 1868-9:—

1868. November . . .	—	—	23	25	—	1869. March . . . . .	3	10	17	—	31
„ December . . .	2	9	16	23	—	„ April . . . . .	7	14	21	28
1869. January . . .	—	—	20	27		„ May . . . . .	5	12	19	26
„ February . . .	3	10	17	24		„ June . . . . .	—	—	—	—	30*

These meetings are free to Members of the Society, who are entitled to admit two friends to each meeting.

* The Annual General Meeting: Chair will be taken at 4 o'clock. No Visitors are admitted to this Meeting.

CANTOR LECTURES.—In addition to the Wednesday Evening Meetings, courses of Lectures, entitled “Cantor Lectures,” are delivered on subjects bearing upon the Arts, the Applied Sciences, Commerce and Industry. The Courses for the Session 1868-9 will be duly announced. These Lectures are free to Members of the Society, who are entitled to admit two friends to each Lecture.

JOURNAL OF THE SOCIETY OF ARTS.—This journal, which is sent free to Members, is published weekly, and contains, in addition to the Reports of the Society’s Proceedings, Reports of the Institutions in Union, and a variety of information connected with Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.—The Library and Reading Room are open to Members, who are also entitled to borrow books.

CONVERSAZIONI are held, to which the Members are invited, each Member receiving a card for himself and lady.

MEMBERSHIP.—The Society consists of upwards of three thousand members. Gentlemen desirous of becoming members should communicate with the Secretary. The Annual Subscription is Two Guineas, or a Life Subscription of Twenty Guineas may be paid. There is no entrance fee.

The Society is at present engaged in carrying out various objects, among which are the following:—

EDUCATION.

UNION OF INSTITUTIONS.—In 1852 the Society founded its “Union of Institutions,” and now has about three hundred Literary, Scientific, and Mechanics’ Institutions, District Unions, and Local Educational Boards, in the United Kingdom and the Colonies, in Union with it, one of the principal objects of this “Union” being the promotion of adult education, particularly by means of examinations.

During the past year the Society has examined 1,842 candidates, in 32 subjects, and has awarded 1,727 certificates and 65 prizes, including the Prince Consort’s Prize of Twenty-five Guineas, graciously continued by Her Majesty.

The whole of the General Prizes are offered to female candidates on the same terms as to males; and, in many of the subjects, an additional prize is offered to females. There is also a Special Prize of Ten Guineas offered by the Council to female candidates.

Special Prizes are also offered this year by the following Companies, Societies, and individuals:—Harry Chester, Esq., in Political Economy; Thomas Twining, Esq., Domestic Economy; the President and Council of the Royal Geographical Society, Geography; the Council of the Royal Horticultural Society, Botany, Fruit and Vegetable Culture, and Floriculture; the Proprietors of the Gardener’s Chronicle, Fruit and Vegetable Culture, and Floriculture. Programmes of the Examination and particulars of the Union may be had on application to the Secretary.

MUSICAL EDUCATION.

A Committee, appointed by the Council early in the year 1865, has been actively engaged in taking the evidence of most of the chief authorities in the musical profession, and has published two reports, pointing out how, in their opinion, a really National Academy of Music may be established in this country.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

A Conference on this subject was held early in last Session, to which were invited all who were known to take interest in it, whether as connected with manufactures or with the Universities and other leading educational bodies throughout the United Kingdom, as well as members of both houses of Parliament. The Conference was well attended, and extended over two days. In consequence of the resolutions then passed a Committee was appointed, who were engaged during the principal portion of the Session in preparing a report which has been published in the Society’s Journal.

ARTISTIC COPYRIGHT.

A Bill for the Consolidation and Amendment of the Laws of Artistic Copyright has been prepared by the Society’s Committee, and will, if possible, be introduced into Parliament next Session.

ART-WORKMANSHIP PRIZES.

The Society is directing its attention to the encouragement of Art-Workmen, by offering premiums for various kinds of Art-Workmanship. For the present Session, the Society offers a large number of prizes—the works to consist of various kinds of enamelling on metal; painting on earthenware and glass; the production of Venetian filigrani on glass; painting and lacquering on wood or papier-maché; damascening; the combination of marquetry with carving in low relief; the combination of gilding or gilt-metal work with incised ivory or hard wood; the inlaying of wood and ivory, softer woods or other substances, in the solid; the combination of mosaic with carved marble or stone; wood-carving, involving the combination of not less than three different woods, &c. In the second division, additional prizes are offered for specimens of the application to ordinary industry of these art processes. The Worshipful Company of Salters contributes to the Prize Fund. The articles sent in by competitors are exhibited in the Society’s Rooms, for the inspection of Members and their friends.

Further particulars may be obtained of the Secretary.

ARTISANS' REPORTS ON THE STATE OF INDUSTRY ABROAD.

Believing that visits on the part of skilled workmen to the Paris Universal Exhibition would not only exercise a beneficial influence upon the men themselves, but also upon the progress of industry in the United Kingdom, the Council of the Society of Arts raised a fund (to which Five Hundred Pounds was added by Her Majesty's Government), to aid a limited number of workmen to proceed to Paris, for the purpose of studying and reporting upon the Exhibition. Their reports have been published by the Society, and the edition has already been exhausted.

In continuation of this course of action the Council have sent one of these reporters to the United States, to report on the state of industry there and on the condition of the artisan.

SPECIAL PRIZES.

The Society is now offering Special Prizes for various objects, such as the best published treatise on Jurisprudence, the best process for Preserving Fresh Meat, the production of Fuel from Peat, improved Vans for Railway Transport of Meat and Milk, improved Milk Cans, &c.

FOOD OF THE PEOPLE.

During the last two Sessions the Society has been actively engaged in investigating the question of increasing the supply of Food for the People, a Committee having been formed for that purpose. This Committee has appointed Sub-committees on Meat, Fish, Milk, Cooking and Cooking Apparatus, &c.; and much valuable information has been already collected and published in the Society's Journal.

ALBERT MEDAL.

The Albert Gold Medal, founded to reward distinguished merit in Promoting Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce, was awarded last Session to Mr. Joseph Whitworth, F.R.S., LL.D., "for the invention and manufacture of instruments of measurement and uniform standards, by which the production of machinery has been brought to a degree of perfection hitherto unapproached, to the great advancement of Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce."

This medal was instituted to reward "distinguished merit in Promoting Arts, Manufactures, or Commerce," and among its recipients in previous years have been Sir Rowland Hill, the Emperor of the French, Professor Faraday, and Mr. W. Fothergill Cooke and Professor Charles Wheatstone.

Full particulars of the Prizes, and various objects of the Society, can be obtained on application to the Secretary.

LIST OF INSTITUTIONS IN UNION.*

Any Institution or Provincial Union of Institutions desirous of entering into Union with the Society of Arts, must fill up, sign, and return to the Secretary, a printed Form of Declaration, which will be furnished on application. When this form has been approved by the Council, the Institution is taken into Union. The subscription is two guineas annually, and may be paid in either of the two following ways: the President, or any other analogous officer of the Institution, may be elected a member of the Society of Arts; or the Institution or Provincial Union may contribute from its own funds the sum of two guineas. In the former case the gentleman so selected will enjoy all the privileges of a Member, and will, at the same time, give to his own Institution, so long as he continues to hold the same office in it, the advantages of the Union. In the latter case, the Institution itself will receive the advantages of the Union, but no individual member of the Institution will enjoy the full privileges of a member of the Society of Arts.

* In this List, the Institutions which have agreed to a General Interchange of Privileges are denoted by an asterisk. By means of this organisation and arrangement, a Member of one Institution, when visiting a town in which any other is situated, will be enabled to enjoy at the other, for the time being, all the advantages of membership. Any person wishing to avail himself of this privilege needs only to present his Card of Membership, it being understood that he will abide by the Bye-laws of the particular Institution he may visit, as well in regard to the time to which the privilege may be extended as to all other matters.
